Dear Brothers and Sisters, I have to confess to you that I've always found large parts of the Books of Exodus and Leviticus to be rather boring - endless detailed instructions for the organising of the community and its worship, like a vast ancient risk assessment form and assembly manual combined! Yet Coronavirus has taught me its wisdom For it was to prepare and help the people of

The Law 3: revives us

The Lenten journey through the wilderness therefore is one that is not aimless meandering, looking for spiritual succour from wherever we might find it, but is one that requires us to be led by the Holy Spirit, and the law of God In adversity (and the People of God in Exodus and Numbers certainly encounter that) the Law becomes the context by which the community lives: when they are tempted
